

Year 4

What have we been up to?

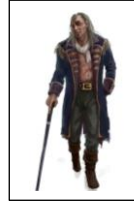

Treasure Island

We have been writing character descriptions inspired by Treasure Island...

Blind Pew

Although he may seem unimposing, don't be deceived by his meagre appearance.

Hunched like a question mark, he shuffles along tapping his stick before him. Perched on his crooked nose, his bottle-green blindfold covers his squinting eyes. His dark, tattered cloak with oversized hood hangs on his scrawny frame.

A darker secret hides beneath – he has a hollow chest. Remarkably, his heart felt no pang of guilt as he handed the black spot to Billy Bones. Worse still, the corners of his twisted mouth twitched in delight. His determination knows no limits when it comes to attaining the map.

For your own safety, avoid this cruel, sinister man with a black soul.

NEXT – Setting descriptions...

Pupil scripts, lyrics and all songs can be accessed at home when the children log into their google accounts – enjoy! 😊

Investigating links between volume and soundwaves.
The sprinkles jumped REALLY high!!

Shoebboxes please!!

We will be making stage designs with electric lighting.

Play at home using your Mathletics log-in details.

Egyptian Experience at Norwich Castle – Thursday 3rd January
THERE ARE A NUMBER OF OUTSTANDING FORMS AND PAYMENTS. WITHOUT SUFFICIENT CONTRIBUTIONS, THE TRIP MAY NOT BE ABLE TO GO AHEAD.

Can you come in and listen to readers? Please let your child's teacher know if you can!

Maths - We have been learning about perimeter and trying to answer a range of questions like these:

Which of these shapes has the longest perimeter?

Explore other letters which could be drawn as rectilinear shapes.

Bob has some rectangles all the same size.

He makes this shape using his rectangles. What is the perimeter?
