

Friday, 8th March 2019

Year 6 News

Dereham Church of England Junior Academy

Issue 9

World Book Day (Family Café)

Having all produced an extra character chapter for Charlie and the Chocolate Factory, children shared their story work with peers and parents at yesterday's Café. Following up, we designed covers inspired by the descriptions of the characters and the rooms they visited in the factory.

Watch out for the finished pieces being displayed on our Family Café board just before you enter the library - Coming Soon!

Charlie and The Chocolate Factory

Having kicked off our topic watching Charlie and the Chocolate Factory, a large amount of this half terms work is centered around this book. Already, the children have created some excellent work.

No glass ceiling in the year six 'glass elevators'.

An outline of what's to come:

- ♦ Journalistic work in English about an incident at the Factory.
- ♦ A week on the ancient Mayans including Artwork, Geography, History and making chocolate drinks!
- ♦ Shape and Space work in Maths
- ♦ Complaint letters in English about substandard Wonka bars.

This Half Terms Upcoming Dates:

Mock SATs	w.c. 11/3
Red Nose Day	15/3
Science Café (9:00-10:00am)	22/3
Hotdog and Popcorn Film Nights	26/3 & 28/3
Upper School East- er Service (pm)	29/3
Easter Discos	4/4

Reminders:

- Please remember to:
- Read regularly at home
 - Do some Mathletics
 - Practice Spellings

Information:

Each class now has an Online Classroom, accessible through Google!

WOW Work!

We have been creating our own 6th Golden Ticket Winners for Willy Wonka's famous factory tour. Hopefully you heard some of the stories at our World Book Day Family Cafe.

Chocolate wasn't Rocky's thing; he preferred ice-cream. Rocky isn't the type of boy you think he is; he has his own personality. Sometimes he's good, sometimes he's bad. Sometimes he gets his own way, for example if he wants Guzzi he could have it. One day Rocky was bored so he decided to go to the corner shop for some ice-cream, as usual, but they were out of stock. "Oh bother," said Rocky, "you know what, as I haven't had a chocolate bar for so long why not buy a brand, spanking new Wonka bar?" said Rocky proudly. He decided to have a bite but when he opened it, "Oh my goodness- A WONKA GOLDEN TICKET!!!" screamed Rocky.

The ticket told him he could take one adult with him, to the Willy Wonka factory. He chose to take his favourite Uncle Lenny because he loves ice-cream too. As it's a special occasion Lenny hired a lime-green limo. When he got to the factory Rocky's blue eyes nearly popped out of his head and his jaw hung open with dribble. The colossal factory was a dim, tall, thick, brick building. Motionless, Rocky stared at the ancient building after clambering out the long limousine. It was an early Tuesday morning and Rocky was SO EXCITED he couldn't bear it; so was Lenny.

After an exhilarating, whirlwind tour of 'the factory' they entered the latest invention room: 'Ice-cream Magic'. The room was filled WITH ICE-CREAM! including an ice-cream fountain. Mischievously, he went to the fountain. Turning quickly, Rocky put his tongue underneath the fountain but immediately got sucked up into a tube. Suddenly, the tube burst. Freezing-cold ice-cream went everywhere and so did Rocky! Uncle Lenny caught Rocky as he catapulted towards him and the Oompa Loompas cheered. "HOORAY." "They've finally spoke English," said Rocky smiling. Uncle Lenny carried him back to the limo and the unhappy-looking Rocky firmly said "I'm not eating ice-cream again."

BY RILEY BLACKMORE

