

What have the Romans done for us?

Roman day 2019

Taking part in our very own banquet. On the menu:

- Pancakes with dates and honey
- Olives
- Artichokes
- 'Dormice' (Chocolate!)
- 'Wine' (Grape juice!)
- Apples
- Grapes
- Cold meat
- Goat's cheese
- Figs
- Bread

Creating mosaic designs.

Making shields and learning battle drills and formations.

All right, but apart from the sanitation, medicine, education, wine, public order, irrigation, roads, the fresh water system, and public health, what have the Romans ever done for us?

Monty Python's Life of Brian

The children will learn where the Romans came from and why they settled in Britain. They will investigate the impact of the Romans – then and now – and create their own websites to share their ideas. They will refine their internet search skills and work on their speed typing.

The Iceni (the Celtic tribe of East Anglia) and Boudicca's revolt will be studied. The children will write diary entries and produce newspaper reports based on real life events.
