Fame: Quick Quills & Positive Potions

English

- Children will be learning how to write journalistically; looking at the features of a newspaper report and using them to report their own news story based around Harry Potter
- Children will then be learning to write an effective story with a magical twist!

Mathematics

- Children will be learning how to recognise prime, square and cube numbers, as well as factors and multiples.
- They will be developing their use of both mental and written methods to solve multiplication and division questions.

Physical Education

- During indoor PE, children will be looking at developing social skills during Real PE sessions
- During outdoor PE, children will be learning invasion games skills to apply to Netball

Religious Education

Children will answer the question: 'What message did the apgels bring?'

Science

will:

- Children will be learning about and investigating the properties and changes of different materials.
- They will continue to develop their skills working scientifically.

PSHE

- Children will learn about the physical and emotional changes that take place during puberty.
- Children will learn how to identify healthy relationships and recognise the skills to manage and maintain healthy relationships

French

Children will be learning key vocabulary and grammatical structures as well as how to talk and discuss school

History

- The children will learn about the Ancient Greeks
  - hildren will look at what and why the Olympics were created

Computing/

- Children will learn to use technology to help present work using advanced features of software and tools
- The children will learn to take photographs and video taking into account audience and purpose