

Spelling in Year 3

In Year 3, children will continue to work on their phonics through their differentiated reading sessions. In these sessions, the children are grouped into one of 7 groups and read books or texts specific to their ability. To aid their reading and the retention of key sounds and letter patterns which are specific to each reading group, the different classes have their own spellings and will be put onto 'Spelling Shed' each week.