World Book Day!

Thursday 2nd March is World Book Day.

As Thursday the 2nd is already a very busy day with Parents Evening, we are choosing to celebrate at DJA on:

FRIDAY 3RD MARCH!

On this occasion, we will not be asking the children to dress up or for parents to come into school as we already have a really exciting Science Family Café a couple of weeks later (a letter and invite for this will be sent out soon!).

Our in school celebration will include an opportunity to mix with children from across all year groups in our School Houses and 'visit' a 'Starbooks' café to share a story and recommend books to others, as well as be treated to a lovely hot chocolate and snack while doing so!

The children will also all bring home a World Book Day Voucher – these entitle each child to a FREE BOOK!

They can be swapped for a book at the following places close to us:

- Tesco, Dereham
- Morrisons, Dereham
- The Works, Dereham and The Works, Swaffham
- Sainsburys, Longwater

Look for the books with the World Book Day symbol and simply take that with your voucher to the till!

We are so excited to mark this day again so keep your eyes peeled on our website and social media sites for highlights of the day!
