

YEAR FOUR

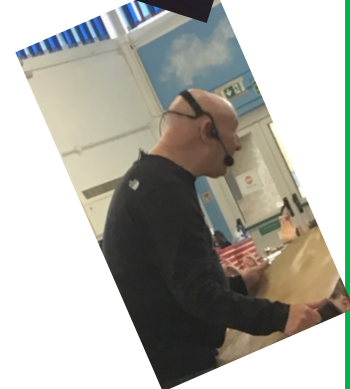

What have we been learning?

Last week we took part in a fantastic drumming workshop with Jeff Rich. He was the drummer in Status Quo for over 15 years. We learned about the history of drums, had some drumming demonstrations and had a go at playing alongside Jeff as a year group with our own percussion instruments. It was lots of fun!

English: We have been writing descriptive texts with a focus on using ambitious vocabulary, expanded noun phrases, simile and personification. We are now going to use these skills to help us complete a narrative.

Maths: We have been learning about tenths and hundredths and how to recognise and use them as decimals in different ways.

Topic: Last week we started learning about how to recognise living things and how to classify them. This week we Remember—Reading is a whole school focus so keep enjoying the new books bought for our class libraries.
