

Dereham Cancer Care is Turning Dereham Purple on Wednesday 13th March

In March 2002, Janet Money founded Dereham Cancer Care.
22 years on, we are proud to be offering emotional, social, practical support, holistic therapies and respite holidays to cancer patients and their loved ones.

To celebrate our anniversary, we will be turning Dereham Purple.
Look out for painted pebbles around the town, window dressings in shops and businesses and our display of commemorative hearts at St Nicholas' Church service at 4pm 13th March

Our drop in sessions which are held at the centre, are open to all..
Monday, Tuesday, Thursday & Friday - 10.00am to 2.00pm and the 2nd Tuesday 19.00 to 21.00 other times by appointment
