

Year Three!

World War Two—How did National events affect Local people?

This half term, we are learning all about how WW2 affected people who were in Norfolk. So far, we have looked at air raids, Dig for Victory and rationing.

We are very excited for our school trip to Gressenhall in a couple

Amazing English work!

So far this half term, we have written a historical narrative set in World War 2 during an air raid. We were really impressed with the children's work and how they included historical detail to really set the scene!

After school Jude went to see old, Kind, Funny Boris. Boris was picking fresh, clean salad in the greenery of the garden. Together, they fixed the light brown, rusty fence until the wailing sirens went, mum was shaking and her pale hands were trembling.

Jude ran into the bright yellow, dusty house and darted upstairs. He went to the silvery white window and saw a horrible winged monster. He grabbed his special toys and ran with mum to a Anderson

That night, Coby couldn't sleep. He was woken up by a familiar wail from the air raid sirens and just when Coby was making his bed, at the corner of his eye he saw a dark, black, giant falcon in the sky like hunting its prey. Coby was paralysed by what he wouldn't miss. Although

Well done!

A big well done to all Year 3s for their super effort during Sports Day this week!
